

1.18	Word	Syllable	PoS	L2 Definition	Collocation	Word Family
841	except	oO	prep	not including; other than	We haven't told anyone except the teacher. The store is open every day except Sunday.	exception (n)
842	clean	O	adj	being free from dirt or marks because it was washed	to clean the window; to clean your room; The hotel was very clean.	clean (v), cleaner (n)
843	tend	O	verb	to regularly behave in a certain way / usually do something	He tends to tell lies when pressured. The SAC tends to get busy at the end of the semester. Starbucks tends to be busy before 9 a.m.	tendency (n)
844	advance	oO	verb	to move forward in a certain direction	I hope you will advance to Pre-A English next year. to advance the cause of freedom	advance (adj)
845	fill	O	verb	to make something full	fill the tank with gasoline; fill the cup; fill the pool	fill (n)
846	star	O	adj	a bright planet of gas in the night sky / a planet or sun very far away	She is a star athlete at the university. a star student	star (n), star (v)
847	network	Oo	noun	system of connections / a system that brings things together	a computer network; Our library is part of a large network of other libraries	network (v)
848	generally	Oooo	adv	usually; as a rule; by, to or for most people	It is generally believed that some medicine does not work.	general (adj), generalize (v)
849	operation	oOo	noun	functioning; use	After the typhoon, there was a large cleanup operation. He has to have an operation on his ankle.	operate (v), operational (adj)
850	match	O	noun	a sports competition between two people or teams	a tennis match; a cricket match; He is no match for her abilities.	match (v)
851	avoid	oO	verb	to prevent from happening, or stay away from	I want to avoid seeing him. Stop avoiding your homework.	avoidance (n)
852	seat	O	verb	to show someone to a place so that they can sit down	The new stadium will seat up to 80,000 people.	seat (n)
853	throw	O	verb	to use your arm to make a thing fly through the air	She only threw strikes in the inning. Throw the ball to her.
854	task	O	noun	a big or small piece of work someone has to do	I have several more tasks to finish before I go home. an easy task	task (v)
855	normal	Oo	adj	the standard or regular way of doing something	a normal day; You may feel tired, but that is perfectly normal.	normally (adv), normalize (v)
856	goal	O	noun	something you try to do or achieve; an aim	My goal is to read 150,000 words for ER this semester. What is your goal?	goalie (n)
857	associate	oOoo	noun	a partner in professional work, e.g. in law	a business associate; an associate company	associate (v), associate (adj)
858	blue	O	adj	the color of the clear sky	the Mediterranean Sea is a deep blue.	blue (n)
859	positive	Ooo	adj	good or useful in qualities, constructive, confident	a positive attitude, a positive outcome, a positive test result	positive (n)
860	option	Oo	noun	a possibility out of several that can be chosen; choice	to have no option; a stock option; You have the option to walk or take a taxi.	option (v), optional (adj)