

1.19	Word	Syllable	PoS	L2 Definition	Collocation	Word Family
861	box	O	noun	a container with (usually) four straight sides and a lid	put it in the box; please take the shoes out of the box	box (v)
862	huge	O	adj	very very large	this is a huge problem; She had a huge hit last year.	hugely (adv), hugeness (n)
863	message	Oo	noun	piece of information that is told/given to someone	Leave a message if you can't come. Message me later. a message in a bottle	message (v)
864	instance	Oo	noun	an example of something; case	There is not a single instance where the teacher was late for class.	instance (v)
865	style	O	noun	the (tasteful) way something is designed or made	She has wonderful style when it comes to clothes. have a different style	style (v)
866	refer	oO	verb	to talk about or write about something	The teacher asked students to refer to their dictionary for spelling.	reference (n)
867	cold	O	adj	having a very low temperature	Canada is cold in the winter. She was very cold to the idea.	cold (n) coldly (adv)
868	push	O	verb	to force something away from you	You have to push yourself every day to succeed.	push (n), pushy (adj)
869	quarter	Oo	noun	one of four equal parts of something	25 years is a quarter of a century.	quarter (v)
870	assume	oO	verb	to believe, based on the evidence; suppose	Because the students were quiet, the teacher assumed they did poorly on the test.	assumption (n)
871	baby	Oo	noun	very young child, who cannot yet speak	The baby needs to be fed soon. play with the baby	baby (v), babyish
872	successful	oOo	adj	having the desired effect or result	Successful students often study every day. highly successful; successful in attracting new business	success (n), succeed (v), successfully (adv)
873	sing	O	verb	to make musical sounds with your voice	sing a song; I can't sing. Please sing for us.
874	doubt	O	noun	not being sure of something; lack of certainty	I have my doubts about him. I doubt I will be able to go.	doubt (v), doubtful (adj), doubtfully (adv)
875	competition	ooOo	noun	fighting against others when trying to win something	fierce competition; No competition can beat her.	compete (v), competitive (adj)
876	theory	Oo	noun	an idea that is explain facts or events academically	I have a theory about ...; scientific theory	theorize (v), theoretical (adj)
877	propose	oO	verb	to offer or put forward an idea for consideration	He proposed to her at the party. She proposed holding the meeting earlier.	proposal (n)
878	reference	Ooo	verb	to cite a piece of research in speech or in writing	I referenced Einstein early theories.	reference (n)
879	argument	Ooo	noun	a discussion in which you disagree with another's opinion	a heated argument; I had an argument with my father.	argue (v)
880	adult	oO	noun	person or animal that is fully grown	Tickets are more expensive for adults because they usually have a job.	adult (adj)