

1.20	Word	Syllable	PoS	L2 Definition	Collocation	Word Family
881	fly	O	verb	to travel through the air using wings	I'm flying to New York tomorrow. Sometimes it is cheaper to fly.	fly (n)
882	document	Ooo	noun	official (printed) record that gives information	She has to sign the documents. The documents are all in the file.	document (v), documentary (n)
883	pattern	Oo	noun	regular repeated behavior	pattern of employment; I like the pattern of your dress.	pattern (v)
884	application	ooOo	noun	formal request for job, building permission etc	application form; software application; fill out an application	app (n), apply (v)
885	hot	O	adj	having a high temperature	This kimuchi is really hot. July is too hot for the Olympics.	heat (n/v)
886	obviously	Oooo	adverb	in a way that is obvious/easy to see or understand	Obviously, the more you study the better you will do on the test.	obvious (adj)
887	unclear	oO	adj	not easy to understand; not obvious	It is still unclear who won the election.	clear (adj)
888	bill	O	noun	a piece of paper showing what you have to pay	Excuse me, can I have the bill please. The only thing I get in the mail are bills	bill (v)
889	search	O	verb	to carefully look for something	The police are searching for a male, around the age of 20, tall with long hair.	search (n)
890	separate	Ooo	adj	to divide into parts, or to make something divide into parts	The school year is separated into two called semesters.	separation (n)
891	central	Oo	adj	being in the middle	central heating; central bank; central postoffice; This apartments is pretty central.	centralize (v)
892	career	oO	noun	a particular occupation in professional life	Choosing a career is difficult when you are young. start a new career	career (adj)
893	anyway	Ooo	adverb	a word people use to change the topic of a conversation	Anyway, as I was saying, we need to go now. It was wrong, but he did it anyway.
894	speech	O	noun	an expression of ideas or opinions	make a speech; give a speech; a short speech; free speech; hate speech	speak (n), speechless (adj)
895	dog	O	noun	small 4-legged animal that barks, kept as a pet	The two main pets in England are dogs and cats. I prefer dogs.	dog (v)
896	officer	Ooo	noun	person with an important position in an organization	police officer; company officer; duty officer	office (n), officiate (v), official (adj/n)
897	throughout	oO	prep	over or across an entire thing or place, or in every part of something	She worked hard throughout the semester. throughout history; throughout the world
898	oil	O	noun	thick, black liquid in the ground used for fuel	Many wars have been started over oil. Oil industry; import oil from Iran. cooking oil; olive oil	oil (v)
899	dress	O	noun	women's garment with a top part and a skirt	I like the pattern of your dress. wedding dress	dress (v)
900	profit	Oo	verb	to earn money from something	Some people profit from war. I profited a lot by going to the SAC.	profit (n)