

| 1.5 | Word     | Syllable | PoS        | L2 Definition                                     | Collocation  | Word Family   |
|-----|----------|----------|------------|---|--|---|
| 581 | check    | ○        | verb       | To confirm the details of something are correct   | always check; check daily; need to check; better check;                        | check (n)   |
| 582 | complete | ○○       | verb       | To finish or reach the end of doing something     | complete on time; successfully complete; correctly completed                   | completion (n) completely (adv)                       |
| 583 | lie      | ○        | verb       | To say something that you know is not true        | lie about sth; lie to sb; I can tell when he lies                              | lie (n); liar   |
| 584 | pick     | ○        | verb       | to decide on a thing from various choices; select | pick at random; picked for sth; She was picked to be our president             | pick (n)  |
| 585 | reduce   | ○○       | verb       | To make something smaller or use less of it       | try to reduce; dramatically reduce; slightly reduce                            | reduction (n)   |
| 586 | personal | ○○○      | adjective  | done by or to a particular person; individual     | This problem is very personal. A personal friend of my boss. Personal business | personalize (v); impersonal (adj); impersonally (adv) |
| 587 | ground   | ○        | noun       | solid surface of the earth that we stand on       | firm ground; hard ground; hit the ground; a hole in the ground                 | ground (v)  |
| 588 | animal   | ○○○      | noun       | A living creature that is not a plant or person   | dead animal; living animal; dangerous animal; farm animal                      |   |
| 589 | arrive   | ○○       | verb       | to reach the place you are travelling to          | arrive early; arrive on time; finally arrive; arrive at our destination        | arrival (n)   |
| 590 | patient  | ○○       | adjective  | not getting annoyed when things take a long time  | You should remain patient when waiting to see the doctor. Extremely patient    | patiently (adv); impatient (adj)                      |
| 591 | current  | ○        | adjective  | Happening or being in the present time            | current situation; current news; the current manager                           | currently (adv)                                       |
| 592 | century  | ○○○      | noun       | period of 100 years                               | 21st century; next century, current century, previous century                  |   |
| 593 | evidence | ○○○      | noun       | factual proof that helps to establish the truth   | ample evidence, considerable evidence, compelling evidence                     | evident (adj); evidently (adv)                        |
| 594 | exist    | ○○       | verb       | to be present, alive or real                      | Seahorses actually exist. still exist; be known to exist                       | existence (n)   |
| 595 | similar  | ○○○      | adjective  | Nearly the same                                   | feel similar; look similar, similar to sb/sth; similar in size/colour          | similarly (adv)                                       |
| 596 | fight    | ○        | noun       | act of trying to hurt someone by hitting them     | big fight; long fight; fair fight; pick a fight; start a fight                 | fighter (n); fight (v)                                |
| 597 | leader   | ○○       | noun       | person who is in charge of a group or task        | natural leader; born leader; military leader; be elected leader                | lead (v); leaderless (adj)                            |
| 598 | fine     | ○        | adjective  | Good, acceptable or satisfactory                  | look fine; smell fine; be fine; turn out fine; fine weather                    | finely (adv)  |
| 599 | street   | ○        | noun       | road in a city with buildings and places to walk  | a wide street; a narrow street; cross the street; busy street                  |   |
| 600 | former   | ○○       | determiner | being something previously, but not now           | former president; former husband; former address                               |   |