Useful Irregular Forms of Comparative and Superlative Adverbs and Adjectives

Where can you have the best hamburger in Nagoya?

good (adjective)	better	best
well (adverb)	better	best
many (adjective)	more	most
much (adj. / adv.)	more	most
bad (adjective)	worse	worst
badly (adverb)	worse	worst
little (adj. / adv.)	less	least
far (adj. / adv.)	further	furthest
late (adverb)	later	latest

Fill in the blank or select the correct adjective or adverb.

1. a. Last weeks quiz, in Grammar, was my _____ score this semester.
   b. I hope you do _____ on this weeks quiz.

2. Freshness Burgers have the _____ burgers in Nagoya.

3. a.Beppu and Kusatsu are the _____ hot spring towns in Japan, I think.
   b. You think so? I think Noboribetsu is _____.

4. For the _____ news about CEP go to Communicative English Go Green Teams site.

5. He is (less / least) talented than his brother, Jim.

6. If you want to understand the story, you will have to read (further / furthest) in the book.

7. I heard that the violin is _____ difficult instrument to master.

8. English spelling has to be _____ system of any language.

9. Do you have (many / much free time this weekend?

10. How (many / much) bowls of rice do you eat in a week?