

What are they doing now?

Student A

Student A: What does Scott usually do in the morning?

Student B: He usually goes swimming.

Student A: What are Tom and Tory doing this evening?

Student B: They are going to the cinema.

Usually

Today

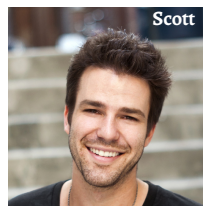

morning
afternoon
evening

play tennis

cook dinner together

do a puzzle together

morning
afternoon
evening

meet friends for lunch

return home from holiday

study for exam

morning
afternoon
evening

go jogging

watch TV with her cat

go to a coffee shop

morning
afternoon
evening

go to the park

play with friends

watch kids youtube

morning
afternoon
evening

go to school

play games on Switch

go to soccer practice

What are they doing now?

Student B

Student A: What does Scott usually do in the morning?

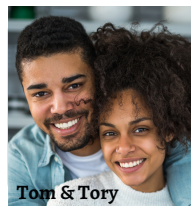

Student B: He usually goes swimming.

Student A: What are Tom and Tory doing this evening?

Student B: They are going to the cinema.

Usually

Today

morning
afternoon
evening

go to the supermarket

visit friends house

go to the cinema

morning
afternoon
evening

go swimming

play video games

post a picture on Instagram

morning
afternoon
evening

make Tik Tok videos

go to a seminar

wash her hair

morning
afternoon
evening

watch cartoons on tv

take a bath

take a nap

morning
afternoon
evening

study history

have breakfast

do English homework